

COURT OF APPEAL BETA PILOT – NOTICE OF APPEAL – FORM 7

Commencing August 1, 2018, there is a new way of completing and submitting the Court of Appeal Notice of Appeal (Form 7) which is being piloted. The specially designed application will allow users to generate and submit the Notice of Appeal form (Form 7) online as well as resume previously saved Notice of Appeal forms.

Important Note: In this current phase of the pilot there are some matters which cannot be completed through this new application and they include:

- Supreme Court Family matters
- Supreme Court files which have a sealing order or ban on publication
- Appeals under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act and *Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act

Should you wish to submit a Notice of Appeal form for these types of matters, you would need to use the regular e-filing process or file in person.

Why are we doing this?

- To improve your experience
- Automated acceptance of the efiled Notice of Appeal (Form 7)
- Facilitate easier completion of forms by using data from lower court case
- Reduce errors
- Enables automating registry process

What do you need to do?

- 1) Use the new application: next time you start a Notice of Appeal for the Court of Appeal, we would ask you to try the new application.
- 2) Provide feedback on your overall experience (more details below).

What do you need in order to participate?

Technical Requirements:

- Adobe pdf viewer or another similar pdf viewer
- BCeID and credit card or BC OnLine account (user ID & password) which has been registered with CSO

Getting Started

A user guide has been developed to assist users in navigating the new application can be found by clicking one of the options below:

Self-represented User Guide or General User Guide

Help??

If you have any questions or issues, please do not hesitate to contact Courts.CSO@gov.bc.ca

Providing feedback

As your participation and feedback is valuable for continued improvement, please feel free to send your feedback at any time to the following: Courts.CSO@gov.bc.ca